NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

The last quarterly conference for this conference year of the Lee Street M. E. Church was held in the class room of that church last night. The meeting was a review of the year's work and for the purpose of preparing a report for the annual conference which will convene at Falls Church, near Washington, February 24. The services for to-day will be a love feast at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the presiding elder, Rev. J. D. Rumburg. There will be preaching in the First Baptist Church to-day at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Rev. T. D. Clark, of Hagerstown, Md., is expected to occupy the pulpit at night. Rev. Wm. E. Hatcher, D. D., of Richmond, will arrive on Monday and preach on Monday night and every night for ten days or more. All persons are invited to attend these meetings.

Dr. Hale and by request of Bishop Whittle, who is seriously ill, Rev. Edward Meade, one of the evangelists for the Diocese of Virginia, will preach in the interest of some important diocesan interests Sunday morning and evening. Services 11 and 7:30 p. m. Sunday-school at 3 p. m.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Campbell, the pastor, will preach at the first Presbyterian Church this morning and evening at the usual hours.

Rev. W. H. Graves will preach at Bethany Chapel at 11 a. m. and at Vinton in the afternoon.

Mass will be celebrated at St. Andrew's Catholic Church this morning at 8 and 10 o'clock, Rev. Father Lynch officiating.

hall of the Young Men's Christian Association, a meeting for men only will be held. Rev. W. F. Hamner, pastor of Greene Memorial Methodist Church, will deliver an address on the "Marching Orders." This is the third of a series of talks on the subject mentioned. All men who can come are invited.

THE R. R. M. C. A.
All railroad men are invited to attend the gospel meeting held in the Christian Church on Church street to-day at 4 p. m. The meeting will be led by E. W. Hutchings. Subject, "Importance of Prayer." 1st Timothy, 2d, 8th. Good music. All are invited to take part in the meeting.

Ralph Bingham.
The entertainment to be given by Ralph Bingham at Trinity Tabernacle next Saturday evening will be an opportunity for lovers of music and admirers of eloquence, which comes only once in a life time. The "boy orator" has no equal of his age and no superior of any age. His entertainment is not a lecture, but inimitable recitations, tragic and comic, outbursts of oratory; humorous and pathetic impersonations of character, changing as often as he changes his costume; interspersed with classical music on the violin, of which he is master. His violin solos alone are considered by many who have heard him as quite worth the price of admission. He may safely offer, as he does, a thousand dollar challenge to the world.

How They Settled It.
J. F. Christian and J. P. Barbee are brotherly bachelors and yesterday fitted up a suite of rooms in the Sorrell building.

The furniture is elegant and all of antique oak. A fine chiffonier ornaments the bed room. As these gentlemen are partners in business, it was presumed they would also be partners in the ownership of the furniture when it was ordered. But the elegant chiffonier created a breach. It was finally decided by a proposition from Mr. Barbee.

"Now, Fleming, if you get married first, the chiffonier belongs to you; if I am so fortunate as to be first then the chiffonier is mine and the face of a bachelor will never look therein again." The proposition was mutually agreed to, and the placing of the furniture being next in order, it was arranged with elegant taste, a genuine knowledge of refinement, but savored still of bachelor propensities.

Miss Sherry III.
Miss Bessie L. Sherry is quite sick at the residence of Mrs. W. C. Overby, on Day street. On account of her illness her marriage on the 28th inst., as announced in THE TIMES recently, will be a very quiet affair, and instead of the bridal tour to Maine, the home of the groom, a reception will be given the happy couple by Mrs. Overby.

Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure
Is a purely vegetable remedy prepared from rare medicinal plants, a perfect remedy for coughs, colds, hoarseness, loss of voice, whooping cough, bronchitis, the first stages of consumption, allays all soreness of the lungs and chest, and gives perfect satisfaction. It is the greatest medicine of the age to strengthen the lung tissue. 25 and 50c. per bottle at Massie & Martin's drug store, corner Commerce street and Salem avenue.

John S. Edwards.
Of Adams, N. Y., makes the following sworn statement: Kenyon & Thomas: This is to certify what I know your wonderful medicine, Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, will do in cases of pneumonia. Last winter my mother, who is 75 years of age, was sick unto death with pneumonia. Both lungs were badly involved. The attending physician said she must die. As a last resort we commenced using your Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, applying it freely and thoroughly to the chest, keeping the lungs covered with hot fannels. She soon began to improve and in twelve hours the crisis was past and she was out of danger and is alive and well to-day. Your great remedy saved her life.

When Your Liver
Is torpid and sluggish, you cannot do business successfully. Everything goes wrong. You don't feel well. Get your liver in good working order by using Dr. Hale's Household Tea, the great blood purifier and nerve tonic. It has no equal as a health restorer. For sale at Massie & Martin's drug store, corner Commerce street and Salem avenue.
